

Declaration and Notice of Alert for Imposter Scams by Offenders

We have recently noticed a number of scams falsely using our name in cities of Mainland China and overseas. These include:

1. Illegal and improper use of our logo and information on our official websites without our authorization; and copying or imitating, in our name, the contents of our official websites;
2. Construction of a false investment and wealth management services platform in our name, by which opportunities for cooperation in investment, etc. are solicited; and
3. Impersonation of our staff members.

We hereby declare solemnly that we have not set up any investment and wealth management services platform and the above fraudulent acts are in no way connected with us. We have already reported these fraudulent acts to the police.

We will hold the offenders legally liable by pursuing all lawful means in the event of any economic losses sustained by us or damage to reputation occurred to us as a result of the fraudulent acts mentioned above.

If you receive any suspicious communications or message suspected of involving the activities mentioned above, you should immediately report to the Police for the protection of your rights and interests. We hereby ask that the investing public and our partners be more alert to identifying these activities so as to prevent themselves from being deceived. If there is any enquiry or question, please contact us at (+852)2880 0178.

K. Wah Group

28 January 2019