

Declaration and Notice of Alert for Imposter Scams by Offenders

We have recently spotted some imposter scams conducted in our name in cities of Mainland China and overseas, mainly including:

1. Illegal and improper use of information on our official websites without our authorization; and copying or imitating, in our name, the contents of our official websites;
2. Construction of a false investment and wealth management services platform in our name, by which soliciting for business proposals as well as opportunities for cooperation in investment, etc.; and
3. Impersonation of our staff members.

We hereby declare solemnly that the above fraudulent acts are in no way connected with us. We have already reported these fraudulent acts to the police for the purpose of protecting our interests.

We will hold the offenders legally liable by pursuing all lawful means in the event of any economic losses sustained by us or damage to reputation occurred to us as a result of the fraudulent acts mentioned above.

When you receive any suspicious communications or message suspected of involving the activities mentioned above, you should immediately contact us to verify or clarify its authenticity. We hereby ask that the investing public and our partners be more alert to identifying these activities so as to prevent themselves from being deceived.

Your immediate attention to this declaration is required.

K. Wah Group

5 December 2018